

Ballet Creole

Ballet Creole partners with Etobicoke youth homeless shelter to spread some love this holiday season

A poem written by a youth from Youth Without Shelter (YWS), who wanted to share her gratitude. Youth Without Shelter received 10 complimentary tickets for their youth to come and see Soulful Messiah this year.

"I thank you for sharing yourself with me. I thank you for loving and giving unconditionally. And if tomorrow I wake to find there will be no more days with you, I'll thank you for all you've left behind, that will help to carry me through. I thank you for yesterday, today and tomorrow. Thank you for making YWS a safe and a happy place to be."
